The Messiah of the Jews and the Mahdi of Iran, Both are temptations.

by : Abu Hayan Saeed.

What is the real conflict between Iran and Israel, neither the border is found, nor can any of the two interfere with each other's water resources , there is no linguistic dispute, nor can anyone catch animals from each other's border, nor is there any kind of maritime or Land border dispute? The boundaries of the so-called Promised Land of the Jews are also far away from Iran, then what is the problem?

According to Zionism, the plan of the great Israel is also important because according to them, they are God's favorite people and God promised them in the Torah that if the children of Israel obey Allah, "I will give your generation from the river Egypt to the Euphrates River." Ga" (Genesis 15:18)" But this promise was on the condition of obedience and not on disobedience, but the Jews accepted it as a promise of Allah in any case. Therefore, Jewish expansionism is actually a serious religious duty. And they promised this region. They say. You will see Israel as the most religiously bigoted in the world, whose ideas are very religious. In the past few days, Netanyahu said that he will not allow a country to become a nuclear captive country like Iran, and Israel itself is a supporter of violent religious ideas, but no country in the world talks about this. He does not talk. Like all the religions of the world, the Jews are also waiting for a messiah (Prophet Uzair, peace be upon him) who will take out the Sakina coffin Box from the river and take out the original Torah and establish a Jewish empire and revive Judaism and do justice in the world. All swords will be molded into hammers and peace will be established in the world. The Temple of Solomon will be rebuilt and Judaism will rule the world.

On the other hand, Iranians are also waiting for the arrival of Imam Mahdi in Jerusalem, who will come from Makkah and welcome Prophet Jesus who arrive sit on the wings of angels from the sky and Jesus will pray under the leadership of Imam Mahdi, and Mahdi will fill the world with peace and prosperity, and all these events will take place forty years before Al-Qiyamah ,the day of judgement . Israel's neighboring countries, which are silent on the atrocities on the Palestinians, will know that the Jews are fighting for the region: 1. Palestine 2. The southern part of Lebanon 3. Jordan 4. The Golan Heights of Syria 5. The western part of Iraq 6. Northwestern part of Saudi Arabia 7. Egypt's Sinai Desert 9. The area from the present Israel, i.e. the Nile River to the Euphrates River, is in the eyes of Israel and these are the countries from which the resistance against Israel is "zero". In the Qur'an, it is said in Surah Taubah that "Jews call Hazrat Uzair (peace be upon him) the son of Allah and Christians call Jesus (peace be upon him) the son of Allah." The religious texts of the Jews have been reduced as if their objection is raised to the authenticity of their own texts. Jews have their own stories and Iranians have their own stories. Both of them want to occupy Jerusalem for the revival of Judaism and for the issuance of Mahdism to the Iranians, but the arrival of the Messiah of the Jews and the arrival of the Mahdi of the Iranians will be very close to the Day of Judgment (all the rioters agree on about forty years ago), Now I have assumed that the Day of Judgment will come after ten thousand years, so why are the children of the rioters doing bloodshed for years? Wait for your saviours. The Messiah and the Mahdi themselves will fight a duel and decide among themselves whose kite will fly high. If the rioter does not have children.
